

Reinterment Ceremony
of
Major General John McIntosh
"Colonel John"

Saturday, 23 October, 2010
Mallow Cemetery, Pine Harbor, Georgia

We greatly appreciate that all of you joined us today to honor Col. John. The McIntosh family was a vital link to the formation of Colonial Georgia and many members fought valiantly in the Revolutionary War to bring us our great nation and the freedom we enjoy. Col. John McIntosh's words "Come and Take It" have echoed in the halls of Liberty since 1778, and those words still inspire us today.

We thank each and every volunteer who helped with the excavation of Fair Hope Cemetery and the details to complete the Memorial Cemetery. To Dr. Matthew Williamson, we offer a special thank you for your care of the occupants of Fair Hope Cemetery and helping them rest in peace.

The preservation of Mallow Cemetery is a long journey. We need to restore the monuments which were moved from Fair Hope in the 1920's, and help them find their rightful place once again. With the help of Lamar Smith, we were able to salvage the remaining bricks from Fair Hope and would like to incorporate them into a new wall around the family. If you would like to participate in the restoration efforts, please contact us anytime at mcintoshhistory@gmail.com.

Once again, thank you for your participation in Col. John's final journey.
